SEWA Kalakruti

SEWA Kalakruti is a platform for women artisans, which connects them to trainings/capacity building, markets, and other stakeholders in the handicrafts sector. Through SEWA Kalakruti, artisans can access the expertise of designers and stay connected to industry trends.

SEWA Federation

Since 1992, SEWA Federation has been working for and with women of informal economy, organizing over 300,000 women workers into 100+ collective enterprises. We promote and support these enterprises with capacity building & training, business development & marketing, research & advocacy.

The vision of SEWA Federation is to enable these enterprises and their members to achieve full employment and self-reliance through their own enterprises.

Our Products

Our women artisans make a variety of products, including: home linen, utilities and garments. The artisans use their traditional crafts: patchwork & applique, embroidery, badla, block printing and ajrakh, bandhani

SEWA Kalakruti works with women's collectives, ensuring ethical and sustainable production, with high quality finishing.
